Welcome to Slow Luxury Travel

Luxury is no longer measured by how much we can experience in a week. True luxury is having the time to watch a sunrise without checking the clock, to stay for one more glass of wine, to wander without a destination.

Slow luxury travel is an invitation to exchange busy itineraries for meaningful moments.

To travel lighter. To stay longer. To connect more deeply. Because the greatest journeys are not measured in miles travelled, but in moments remembered.

What you'll discover

THE TORTUGA STORY

Tortuga Travel was created for travellers who want more than holidays.

We believe the best journeys happen away from crowds — in family-run restaurants, hidden beaches, quiet villages, and places where local traditions are still alive.

Our commitment is to luxury that feels genuine: exclusive, personalised, and rooted in cultural respect.

The Tortuga Experience

Forget the crowded viewpoints. Wake early, wander quiet streets, drink coffee with locals and spend evenings where fishermen bring the day's catch directly to your table.

T TRAVEL LIKE A LOCAL

- ◆ Seek out the smaller islands — Folegandros, Halki, Tilos — where life moves at its own unhurried pace.
- ◆ Eat only where the menu is written in Greek. Follow the fishermen.
- ◆ Linger in the village square at dusk. Order slowly. Stay long.
- ◆ Hire a sailing boat for a day and discover hidden coves unreachable by road.
- ◆ Browse the local morning markets — olives, honey, hand-woven cloth.
- ◆ Let the taverna owner choose your meal. It will be the best thing you eat.

SRI LANKA: THE ISLAND OF CONTRASTS

Sri Lanka rewards those who travel slowly. From misty highland tea estates to pristine southern beaches, this island offers a rare blend of natural wonder and cultural depth.

- ◆ Ayurvedic wellness retreats
- ◆ Ancient temple heritage tours
- ◆ Leopard safaris at Yala Reserve
- ◆ Boutique eco-lodges in nature
- ◆ Whale watching in Mirissa

Stay in family-run boutique hotels that blend seamlessly with their surroundings — where sustainability is not a trend, but a way of life.
